

Associated Audio

“Til Further Notice” Seth Glier

B1 Level Words

angel- noun, a spiritual being fear- noun, an unpleasant emotion caused by being aware of danger floating- verb, being carried in air or water none- pronoun, no amount or part of something power- noun, the ability to control things or people searching- verb, trying to find someone or something tears- noun, a drop of liquid that comes from the eyes especially when you cry truth- noun, the real facts about something willing- adj., doing something or ready to do something within- preposition, inside of an area or space

B2 Level Words

drowning- verb, to die by being under water to long and not able to breathe figuring out- phrasal verb, to understand or find a solution (such as a reason or solution) go through- phrasal verb, to experience something (usually negative) look at- phrasal verb, to look at suddenly or quickly pace- noun, at the speed of which someone or something moves resigned- adj., feeling acceptance that something unpleasant will happen or will not change rhythms- noun, regular, repeated pattern of sounds or movements supply- noun, amount of something available to be used

C1/C2 Level Words

humanity- noun, all people as a group rhyme- a poem or song whose lines end in words that end in the same sound

Unknown CEFR Level/High Level Words sermon- noun, speech about a moral or religious subject or a serious talk paralyzed- verb, unable to move rebounding- verb, getting better wick- noun, a string or piece of material in a candle that is lit for burning lit-verb, to stay illuminated, having light sanity- noun, the condition of a healthy mind, opposite of insanity